Your Legacy of Independence

Leaving a gift in your Will is a beautiful way to create a lasting legacy. For Assistance Dogs Australia, these special gifts help us continue to empower connection, inclusion and independence for people with disability.

Every bequest, no matter the size, helps us train and place our incredible Assistance Dogs and develop programs that change lives across the country. Your generosity ensures that, well into the future, more Australians with a disability can experience the life-changing partnership of an Assistance Dog by their side.

We also understand how personal this decision is, and we're committed to honouring your wishes. If you choose to support a particular part of our work, we'll do everything possible to ensure your gift is used exactly as you intend.

If you'd like to chat about how your legacy could make a lasting difference, or learn more about our programs, we'd love to hear from you. Together, we can help more people live with greater independence and freedom.
